North Bay Nordic Ski Club Policy Statement on Harassment and Discrimination

As outlined in Policy 1.9, the North Bay Nordic Ski Club (NBNSC) is committed to providing an environment free of harassment and discrimination, where all individuals are treated with respect and dignity, can contribute fully and have equal opportunities.

Under the Ontario Human Rights Code, every person has the right to be free from harassment and discrimination. Harassment and discrimination will not be tolerated, condoned, or ignored at NBNSC. If a claim of harassment or discrimination is proven, disciplinary measures will be applied, up to and including termination of membership or employment.

NBNSC is committed to a comprehensive strategy to address harassment and discrimination, including:

- promoting appropriate standards of conduct at all times;
- ensuring that members, day users, volunteers and staff at NBNSC are aware that harassment and discrimination are unacceptable practices and are incompatible with the standards of this organization, as well as being a violation of the law;
- setting out the types of behaviour that may be considered offensive and are prohibited by this policy;
- providing training and education to make sure everyone knows their rights and responsibilities; and
- providing an effective and fair complaints procedure.

The right to freedom from harassment and discrimination extends to all employees, members, day users and volunteers. It is also unacceptable for employees, members, day users and volunteers of NBNSC to engage in harassment or discrimination when dealing with service providers and suppliers. This policy applies at every level of the organization and to every aspect of the workplace environment and employment relationship. It also covers rates of pay, overtime, hours of work, holidays, shift work, discipline and performance evaluations.

This policy prohibits discrimination or harassment based on the following grounds, and any combination of these grounds:

- Age
- Creed (religion)
- Sex (including pregnancy and breastfeeding)
- Sexual orientation
- Gender identity
- Gender expression
- Family status (such as being in a parent-child relationship)
- Marital status (including married, single, widowed, divorced, separated or living in a conjugal relationship outside of marriage, whether in a same-sex or opposite-sex relationship)
- Disability (including mental, physical, developmental or learning disabilities)
- Race

- Ancestry
- Place of origin
- Ethnic origin
- Citizenship
- Colour
- Record of offences (criminal conviction for a provincial offence, or for an offence for which a pardon has been received)
- · Association or relationship with a person identified by one of the above grounds
- Perception that one of the above grounds applies.

The following behaviour is prohibited:

Discrimination: means any form of unequal treatment based on a Code ground, whether imposing extra burdens or denying benefits. It may be intentional or unintentional. It may involve direct actions that are discriminatory on their face, or it may involve rules, practices or procedures that appear neutral, but disadvantage certain groups of people. Discrimination may take obvious forms, or it may happen in very subtle ways. Even if there are many factors affecting a decision or action, if discrimination is one factor, that is a violation of this policy.

Harassment: means a course of comments or actions that are known, or ought reasonably to be known, to be unwelcome. It can involve words or actions that are known or should be known to be offensive, embarrassing, humiliating, demeaning or unwelcome, based on a ground of discrimination identified by this policy. Harassment can occur based on any of the grounds of discrimination.

Examples of harassment include:

- Epithets, remarks, jokes or innuendos related to a person's race, gender identity, gender expression, sex, disability, sexual orientation, creed, age, or any other ground
- Posting or circulating offensive pictures, graffiti or materials, whether in print form or via e-mail or other electronic means
- Singling out a person for humiliating or demeaning "teasing" or jokes because they are a member of a Code-protected group
- Comments ridiculing a person because of characteristics that are related to a ground of discrimination. For example, this could include comments about a person's dress, speech or other practices that may be related to their sex, race, gender identity or creed.
- If a person does not explicitly object to harassing behaviour, or appears to be going along with it, this does not mean that the behaviour is okay. The behaviour could still be considered harassment under the Code.
- Sexual and gender-based harassment: sexual harassment is a form of harassment that can include:
 - Gender-related comments about a person's physical characteristics or mannerisms
 - Paternalism based on gender which a person feels undermines his or herself respect or position of responsibility.
 - Unwelcome physical contact

- Suggestive or offensive remarks or innuendoes about members of a specific gender
- Propositions of physical intimacy
- o Gender-related verbal abuse, threats or taunting
- Leering or inappropriate staring
- Bragging about sexual prowess or questions or discussions about sexual activities
- o Offensive jokes or comments of a sexual nature about an employee or client
- Rough and vulgar humour or language related to gender.
- Display of sexually offensive pictures, graffiti or other materials including through electronic means.
- Demands for dates or sexual favours.
- Sexual Solicitation: this policy prohibits sexual solicitations or advances by any person who is in a position to grant or deny a benefit to the recipient of the solicitation or advance. Reprisals for rejecting such advances or solicitations are also not allowed.
- Poisoned environment: a poisoned environment is created by comments or conduct (including comments or conduct that are condoned or allowed to continue when brought to the attention of management) that create a discriminatory work environment. The comments or conduct need not be directed at a specific person, and may be from any person, regardless of position or status. A single comment or action, if sufficiently serious, may create a poisoned environment.

All persons present in NBNSC are expected to uphold and abide by this policy, by refraining from any form of harassment or discrimination, and by cooperating fully in any investigation of a harassment or discrimination complaint.

Staff and Directors have the additional responsibility to act immediately on observations or allegations of harassment or discrimination. Staff and Directors are responsible for creating and maintaining a harassment and discrimination-free organization and should address potential problems before they become serious.

Contravention of Policy Protocol

Any member, staff, day user or suppler who feels that he or she has been the subject of harassment or discrimination contrary to this policy may attempt an informal resolution, seek advice from Board or staff members, request informal intervention and / or file a formal complaint with Club board pursuant to this policy. Nothing in this policy shall limit a person's right to pursue such legal recourse that may be available to that person, including filing a complaint with the Human Rights Tribunal or commencing a legal action.

Complaints should be reported as soon as possible after the event has occurred, but in any event no more than three (3) months following the occurrence giving rise to the complaint. Parties to a complaint will be given a reasonable opportunity to dispute, correct or contradict all allegations, to present arguments and evidence in support of their position throughout all stages outlined in these procedures.

A complainant may, at his or her discretion, withdraw a complaint at any time. However, NBNSC may, at its discretion, pursue the complaint in order to comply with its legal obligations.

Procedure: any affected party who believe they have been subject to or have witnessed harassment, discrimination or reprisal are encouraged to resolve the issue directly by asking the person to stop immediately. They should keep a record of the incident and resolution.

If the attempted resolution is not successful, the Complainant should report the complaint to 1. Senior staff or 2. The president of the Board of Directors or 3. Any member of the board of directors

Initial Assessment of Complaint

Once the Complainant lodges a complaint, the person receiving the complaint shall first determine if the complaint is within the scope of this policy, and shall advise the Complainant in writing if:

- the subject matter has been found to be frivolous, vexatious or in bad faith;
- the complaint appears to be outside the jurisdiction of NBNSC; or,
- the complaint cannot be supported or substantiated.

If the complaint is deemed to be within the scope of this policy, a discussion will take place during which the Complainant shall be invited to provide details of the complaint.

During this discussion, the recipient of the complaint will explain all options available to the Complainant. Should the complaint be one of sexual nature, the President shall be immediately informed and the police will be contacted.

Informal Resolution

The Complainant may and is encouraged to seek the assistance of a designated board Director towards an informal resolution of the complaint. The designated Director will request the participation of 2 other Directors which will then become the designated committee to handle the complaint. This committee will meet with each party involved and attempt to affect an informal resolution of the complaint. In the absence of an informal resolution of the complaint, the complainant may withdraw the complaint, or file a formal complaint with the NBNSC.

Formal Complaint

If the Complainant wishes to proceed further with his or her complaint, the Complainant must then provide a written statement regarding the alleged harassment or discrimination. If the Designated Committee determines that a formal investigation is warranted, they will conduct an investigation within a reasonable period after receiving the Complainant's written statement.

Investigation

NBNSC shall seek to resolve every harassment and discrimination claim as expediently as possible. The Designated Committee may conduct the investigation or appoint a person or persons to conduct the investigation. The investigator(s) shall determine, on a balance of probabilities, whether a violation of this policy has occurred.

The investigator(s) shall meet with the Complainant, the accused/affected parties involved and any person that may have information relevant to the complaint. The investigator(s) may request and will receive documents or things that may be relevant to the investigation, and the opportunity to interview any person about matters relevant to the complaint.

At the conclusion of a formal investigation, the investigator(s) will prepare a written report which will include a statement of factual findings and a determination of whether, on a balance of probabilities standard, this policy has been violated.

Report Handling Procedures

The Designated Committee shall advise the Complainant and the affected/accused party (parties) of the findings of any investigation conducted under this policy. In all cases, NBNSC shall keep a copy of the report. Upon a finding of harassment or discrimination, the accused/ affected party shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or membership or a ban from the NBNSC facility. Likewise, any acts of reprisal or complaints made that are malicious, frivolous, vexatious or in bad faith may be subject to discipline as above.

Records

NBNSC will keep records of all formal and informal resolutions and investigations and reports.
